

HER BLACK HAIR GOT SNOW WHITE IN A FEW WEEKS

Change Caused by Mrs.
Schaleng's Worry Over
Missing Daughter.

Grief and worry over the fate of her fourteen-year-old daughter, Josephine Schaleng, who disappeared from her home, at No. 416 East Twentieth street, on Jan. 30 last, has turned her mother's hair from raven black to snow white. On the day the young girl vanished she told her mother she was feeling ill and would go to the family doctor's. She set out in that direction, but never arrived there. The mother searched through every corner of the city, and had the police send out a general alarm. She worried constantly over the disappearance and became seriously ill. When she finally gave in to the illness, occasion by her grief her hair had begun to turn gray. In a few weeks it was snow white.

Lieut. John J. Fogarty, who has been hunting for the missing girl, received an anonymous letter last Saturday telling him that she could be found in a Harlem cafe. He went there, but failed to secure any trace of her. The girl is a pretty blonde, four feet eleven inches tall, and weighs less than a hundred pounds. At the time of her disappearance she wore a black skirt, green waist, long black coat trimmed with green and gray Tam o' Shanter.

LABOR MEN CALL ON MAYOR M'CLELLAN.

A delegation of labor men from the Central Federated Union called on Mayor M'Clellan to-day and asked him to use his good offices in favor of union men being hired on the first section of the subway loop, to be built in Centre street by the Deygon Construction Company. They wanted him, the Mayor said, to use his influence with the company to have union men only hired in the enterprise, and he promised them his "sympathetic office."

A member of the delegation said they had called on the Mayor about the Moyer-Haywood matter.

PLATT ANSWERED BY EXPRESS INVESTORS

Low Dividends Not Justified
by Net Earnings of Over 11 Per Cent.

The stockholders of the United States Express Company have received another circular from the committee of stockholders, headed by A. L. Bamister and Samuel S. Hatt, which is engineering a campaign in behalf of larger dividends.

This is a reply to a recent circular which was issued by Thomas C. Platt, president of the company, who, in his circular to the stockholders, argued that conditions did not warrant any increase in the dividend rates. The circular says in part: "The report of the management shows that net earnings have been from 11 per cent. to 13 per cent. annually for the past five years. We believe they have been much larger. Dividends in that time have not exceeded 4 per cent. The real estate securities and other assets of the company have an actual cash value conservatively estimated at $12,500,000. The total assets are believed to be worth from $18,000,000 to $20,000,000. "Shareholders of other large express companies are receiving annually 10 per cent and upward, and an increase by this company to 7 per cent, cannot possibly cause hostile legislation."

TIMELY ADVICE TO PREVENT SUMMER SICKNESS

Before occupying your summer home you should clean and disinfect it thoroughly and remove all musty odors. Mere soap and water is not enough and a strong disinfectant (C. N. Disinfectant) is preferred. It should be added to destroy any disease germs that might have developed during the winter, and particular attention should be paid to sinks, toilets, plumbing, etc., and all damp corners, which are always dangerous places.
